Note: To expedite your request for Superfund information, this message has been transmitted from a non-EPA location.

Dear Timothy Garvey:

In response to your request on August 22, 2014, the Olin Chemical Site is listed in the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Information System (CERCLIS) with several actions. This information is current as of 11/12/2013. For further information on this site, please contact the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) REGION 1 at (617) 918-1102. This contact information is also included in the attached Excel spreadsheet.

Information is available online on the Superfund Information System area of EPA's Web site at <http://cumulis.epa.gov/supercpad/cursites/srchsites.cfm>. Type in the site name or EPA ID and click the search button. Click on the site name link (in blue) on the search results page to view the site information, which includes activities conducted, documents available, contact, contaminants and overall site progress. The "More Details" box at the top right of the profile page has links to the Regional Web area for the site, as well as links to additional site documents and contacts.

On behalf of the EPA, I hope that you find this information useful. If you have questions, please feel free to contact me at the below email.

Sincerely,

William Bushee
